Riders travelling to Geneva Switzerland representing AMGA as part of an International Competition and Tour are required to be appropriately behaved and presentable at all times. Riders will need to be good Ambassadors for both AMGA & Australia and be available to talk to members of the general public and sponsors and includes competitions, interacting with other members of AMGA and other member nations, interacting with members of the general public and at all times while on public display, as well as the treatment and care of loan horses both whilst riding and on the ground.

AMGA will not tolerate any behaviour which reflects badly on AMGA as this is an opportunity to showcase AMGA to not only the broader horse community but also the general public. Any reports of inappropriate behaviour may result in disciplinary action and exclusion from selection in future.
